

Marsa Alam Airport

Client

EMAK Marsa Alam for Management and Operations of Airports

Scope of Work

Conceptual design
Preliminary design
Detailed design
Construction management
Construction supervision

Location

Marsa Alam, Egypt

Types of Activities

Architectural Civil
Communication and security systems Electrical HVAC
Landscape
Mechanical Structural

The project aims at constructing a new airport and associated facilities at Marsa Alam, Egypt. The importance of this project originates from being the first BOT airport project in Egypt. The project is vital for the touristic development of Marsa Alam and forms part of the overall development program, undertaken by EMAK being the investor. The goal of the project is to accommodate an annual traffic capacity of four (4) million passengers by the year 2040.

